CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MOUNTAIN VIEW ANNOUNCES ATHENA AWARD HONOREES

New For 2010 A Young Professional Athena Award

On March 9th the Chamber of Commerce Mountain View will present two prestigious ATHENA Awards. This year there is a new Young Professional Athena Award in addition to the traditional award.

The ATHENA Award will be presented to Margaret Abe-Koga and the Young Professional ATHENA Award will be presented to Sara Jorgensen. These women embody the highest levels of professional excellence in their professions, have devoted time and energy to improve the quality of life for others in the community, and both actively assist women in realizing their leadership potential. We are honored to have them in our community.

The first ATHENA Award was presented in 1982. ATHENA is an international non-profit organization dedicated to supporting, developing and honoring women leaders, inspiring women to achieve their full potential—creating balance in leadership worldwide. There are over 300 active award programs and more than 5000 awards have been presented to ATHENA Recipients in the United States and around the world.

The awards will be formally presented at a luncheon on March 9th, 2010 at 11:30 at Michaels at Shoreline. Please visit the Chamber of Commerce website www.chambermv.org to register for the event.

Through this program, we hope to build awareness of and honor the valuable contributions being made by women in our business and professional community. We are looking forward to a successful celebration this year and we welcome your participation.
